Vesling, Johann 1598 - 1649

DEGREE: none        DATE: 1625 ca.        PLACE: Bologna
TEACHER/RESEARCH ADVISOR: Bartoletti

professor of anatomy, surgery, and botany; popular teacher and lecturer; travelled in Egypt and described the native flora; studied the development of the chick embryo; one of first to assert that four pulmonary veins empty into the left auricle of the heart; studied the scent glands and reproductive organs of snakes.