Vrolik, Gerard 1775 - 1859

DEGREE: MD DATE: 1796 PLACE: Leiden
TEACHER/RESEARCH ADVISOR: Brugmans

professor of botany, anatomy, physiology, and obstetrics; was the first professor in Holland to found an obstetric clinic; established a private anatomical museum which became an important part of the Amsterdam Academy collection; expert on the anatomy of the pelvis and its relationship to the birth process and bipedalism in man; wrote texts on the defoliation of plants and the flora of Amsterdam.