Problem 8

Use the Monte Carlo code you produced in the last assignment to calculate the average mean-square displacement for a classical unit-mass harmonic oscillator at the inverse temperature $\beta = 1$. This will involve the evaluation of a two-dimensional phase space integral.